

Soft sanding at its best.

Hermes foam-backed abrasives

Handy, practical, efficient – Hermes sanding sponges

Hermes foam-backed abrasives are used primarily in intermediate lacquer sanding and final sanding in woodworking and lacquer processing. Special shapes and a variety of foam hardnesses and flexibilities satisfy the requirements of the many shapes of surface like contours, tight profiles, flat areas and mitres. The foam backings even out pressure to allow especially gentle sanding.

With the exception of designs with coating on both sides, all Hermes foam-backed abrasives are marked with the relevant grit size.

Applications

- Fine sanding of wood in preparation for staining and lacquering
- Intermediate sanding of primers and lacquers
- Fine cleaning of oxide layers from metallic surfaces
- Can be used wet or dry

Foam-backed abrasives coated on both sides

Premium, double-sided

Grain Silicon carbide
Backing Flexible foam, blue, 12 mm

The benefits for you

- High degree of flexibility and adaptability
- For highly profiled and contoured workpieces

WHITE, DOUBLE-SIDED

Grain Aluminium oxide
Backing Flexible foam, white, 12 mm

The benefits for you

- The benefits for you
- High degree of flexibility and adaptability
- For highly profiled and contoured workpieces
- Especially suitable for white or other or other light-coloured lacquers

Foam-backed net abrasives

FineNet FN 915, velour-backed

FINENET FN 915 VEL

Grain Silicon carbide
 Bindung Resin, grey
 Backing Net, foam-laminated and velour-backed

The benefits for you

- Abrasive adapts perfectly to contours and very tight radii
- Minimal loading and the potential to clean the used abrasive results in extended tool life
- Generates very fine surfaces with consistent surface roughness
- Dust-free sanding with minimal rework on surfaces
- Extremely versatile – wet and dry on random orbital sanders or with hand sanding
- Pressure-equalizing foam layer facilitates "gentle" sanding and reduces the risk of sanding through surface coating
